

FISH TAILS
 Even the most finicky feline will get bowled over by these dishes from Gina Atkinson Design in Carrollton. The fish-shaped servers are perfect for holding your furry friend's favorite food, and you can find them in assorted colors at Paws Around Town or look for them online at GinaAtkinsonDesign.com

Book It
 Pets teach us to enjoy the simple pleasures in life, so it's only fair that we show how much we appreciate them. With that in mind, your pet will want to put Pet Lovers Crème de la Crème of Pet Living on your reading list. This book shares a variety of ways to celebrate the life of your pet and covers topics such as cuisine, travel, and special occasions. Enhancing your pet's life will benefit both you and your pet. Written by Lisa Miller of Denton, you'll find it at www.biscuitsnbones.com or call 940-565-0412.

Photo: Bill Albrecht

A JARRING DISCOVERY
 Here's something that's a treat for both you and your pet - but don't be surprised if you love it more! Created by the Austin-based company WetnOz, this jar is part of a line of dog and cat bowls that are simply some of the best we've ever seen. The dog bowls, which come in two sizes, are designed as both a scoop and a bowl, which means you can scoop and serve in one fell swoop, while the cat dishes are flatter than traditional dishes to alleviate whisker stress and heighten dining pleasure for your feline. Don't worry, though - if you find yourself tempted to use these dandy dishes for yourself, they've also created a companion cup for humans. Look for this fresh new line at Tails of the City in Snider Plaza, or go online to www.wetnoz.com.

GET OUT!
 A guide to great dining, shopping and playing for animals and their companions

INSIDE:
 MAKE YOUR YARD PET-PERFECT
 BOWLING FOR PETS
 CAN A CHIP SAVE YOUR PETS?